Grand Patriotic Demonstration in Rock County.

The county meeting called to take into consideration the condition of the country and to adopt such measures as the exigencies of the times demand, was held in this city to-day.

Early this forenoon it was evident that the people of the city expected the patriotic demonstration which was about to take place. The stores on Main and Milwaukee streets were tastefully beautified by almost innumerable flags of all sizes—some hung out of windows and others from ropes stretched across the street. Many of the stores in these streets were also ornamented with long strips of goods reaching from upper windows, or draped about entrances, composed of the favorite colors of red, white and blue. The Star Spangled Banner was also hung to the breeze from many private dwellings, school edifices, &c. The fine weather and the gay banners produced an animated scene well calculated to incite patriotic emotions.

During the forenoon people poured into the city from the country. Not less than five thousand of the hardy young men of Rock county were in attendance. There was a deep feeling manifested by all present. The excitement was intense and manifested itself in loud applause at the utterance of every patriotic sentiment in the meeting.

The volunteer company of this city, commanded by Capt. Ely, marched to the Hyatt House Hall, at about 2 o'clock, followed by an immense multitude of people, ladies as well as gentlemen, who soon filled the hall.

The meeting was organized by appointment by E. Hale, of Beloit, chairman, W. H. Ebbetts, Hiram Bowen and E. P. Brooks, secretaries, and Andrew Palmer, Isaac Miles, Dr. John Mitchell, E. P. Burdick, J. P. Wheeler and D. Y. Kilgore, vice presidents.

A committee reported a plan for the organization of a "County Relief Society," which was adopted.

In addition to the meeting at the Hyatt House Hall, there was a large assemblage of people at the public square, where there was speaking.

It is impossible for us to give a report of the proceedings of these meetings, as they are in progress as we are preparing our paper for the press. We shall give full accounts of them in our issue to-morrow.

Despatches to the Governor.

We learn from a gentleman of this city who was in Madison yesterday that Gov. Randall received a telegraphic despatch from Frank Blair of St. Louis urging him to call out more troops than the number specified in the President's requisition, as there is a probability they will be needed to co-operate with the Union men of Missouri. The Governor also received a despatch from Gen. King, who is now in Washington, stating that, from the present aspect of affairs, several more regiments will be required from this state.

Meeting in Evansville.

There was a large meeting in Evansville last evening. Col. W. C. Kelley was chairman, and D. H. Starr secretary. Messrs. Comstock and Gibbs addressed the meeting. It was a business meeting, one of the right kind. A large amount of subscriptions was pledged for the support of the families of volunteers. The number of enrollments are already 33, and the probability is that an entire company will be raised.

The proceedings will appear to-morrow.

Wisconsin Items.

The members of the Milwaukee Chamber of Commerce have subscribed $14,065 to the volunteer's relief fund.

A commission has been issued to S. H. Slaymaker as captain of the Beloit volunteers.

An order has been issued to the ten companies composing the second regiment, to prepare to go into rendezvous in three days from receipt of order.

Gen. T. H. Ruger has been sent to Springfield, Ill., to enquire into, and report as to the management, of rendezvous for troops, &c., &c.

S. Park Coon has been commissioned as colonel of the 23d regiment of Wisconsin active militia.

From twelve to fifteen ladies, the Wisconsin says, have volunteered to go with the 1st regiment, as nurses. One was a young woman from the country, whose brother is among the volunteers.

Harrison C. Hobart is raising a company of volunteers in Calumet county.

Forty-eight companies had reported themselves, and tendered their services to the governor, at 12 o'clock yesterday, and reports are coming faster and faster with every hour. The country is full of patriots and they are fully aroused.

The Geneva Independents, of Walworth county, have reported the company full, and it awaits orders.

GONE INTO CAMP.—The Milwaukee Light Guard have gone into camp on Spring St. hill. The camp equipage was carried to the ground in the very midst of the drenching rain.

We could fill columns with similar notices, and incidents connected with enrollments, but our room imposes an irresistible restraint upon us. The items we publish are only an index to the feeling and the movements throughout the entire north.

The Spirit of Old Massachusetts is Aroused.

TUFTS COLLEGE, Medford, Mass., April 24, 1861.

Messrs. Editors:—You have probably heard, ere this, the part which Massachusetts is acting in the great drama of "civil war now in progress; but there are some local incidents serving to show the general spirit of patriotism here, which may not be uninteresting to your readers.

The events daily transpiring, particularly those which occurred in Boston and vicinity last Friday, the 19th of April,—ever memorable in the pages of history, as the anniversary of that day when a handful of brave men laid down their lives on the lawn of Lexington in defense of their liberties,—show that the sons of the heroes of '76 are not unworthy of their sires; that they too are ready to sacrifice their lives in defense of their blood-bought rights.

The day was ushered in by the ringing of bells and the firing of cannon, on the old battle ground of Lexington.

On the reception of the news that Virginia had seceded, and that the confederate army was marching upon Washington, there was a second ringing of bells, calling the volunteers to arms. Although Massachusetts has already equipped and sent on more troops than were asked by the government, still the people are rushing to arms by thousands. There is but one sentiment here, and that is, "Our Union it must and shall be preserved; its friends are our friends, and its foes are our foes."

The women are not to be outdone by the men, in devotion to their country. Individual offers of services as nurses for the sick, or in any other capacity, are pouring in upon the Governor. He received a communication from "a committee, representing three hundred ladies of the most respectable families in Boston, who were ready to go at a moment's notice, to attend the sick, and render any other assistance in their power, to the troops. They have already provided supplies of linen, lint, &c., for any emergency."

Another true test of the spirit of patriotism which prevails, is the manner in which the people respond, when called upon for pecuniary aid—for it takes the oil of gold to set in motion the machinery of war. The banks in the city of Boston have offered to the government, $3,300,000, and private citizens have contributed over $1,000,000.

At a meeting of the citizens of Medford, a place of about six thousand inhabitants, $3,770 was subscribed for the support of the families of those who have enlisted.

The students of Tufts College are volunteering. On the 19th inst., a member of the Junior class joined the Medford company. On his departure from the college, a splendid silver-mounted revolver was presented to him by the students. A procession was then formed to accompany him to the headquarters of the company. The students then joined the citizens of Medford, to escort the troops to Faneuil Hall, the "Cradle of Liberty," where they were to be received one night before departing for the scene of action.

The parting of the soldiers with their families was a scene not soon to be forgotten by those who witnessed it.

In Boston the troops were welcomed by the acclamations of the people; as they marched through State and Washington streets the enthusiasm of the people knew no bounds; they were everywhere greeted with cheers, waving of flags and clapping of hands.

The city presented a splendid appearance. Business is forgotten; merchants have removed the goods from their large show windows, and flags and bunting take their place; large flags float from the tops of the buildings, many of which are ornamented from the cornice to the side-walk with the "red, white and blue," and all over the city the sentiments of the people are manifested in a similar manner.

Yesterday Wendell Phillips spoke in Music Hall, coming out strongly for the Union and the enforcement of the laws. On Saturday the students of Tufts College raised the American flag over the college edifice, with appropriate ceremonies in the college chapel, which were opened with prayer by the president. Patriotic speeches were made by the professors, two national hymns were sung by the choir, and the stars and stripes were flung to the breeze.

People here are anxious to know what the "Great West" will do. I am frequently interrogated as to what response Wisconsin will make to the call for troops.

I hope that the prompt reply of her citizen soldiery will show that the spirit of liberty in all its pristine vigor exists among the hardy sons of the west, as well as among those who dwell within hearing of Lexington's cannon, and within sight of the banner which waves over the summit of Bunker Hill Monument.

The time has now come to settle the great question which has agitated the country for the last thirty years. The south initiated the bloody contest between freedom and slavery at Fort Sumter, and the sound of the first cannon opened upon that gallant little band has reverberated from the granite rocks of New England, kindling the fires of patriotism in millions of hearts, rousing from slumber the genius of freedom who will not again repose until, tramping upon the last chain of the captive, she shall hold in one hand the constitution, and with the other wave over our country the "star spangled banner with not a stripe polluted, not a star erased."

Yours in earnest, A. C. F.

For a time there will be a great scarcity of uniforms. The red shirt of the Garibaldians should not be forgotten. An army in red shirts and glazed caps would not be badly uniformed. A red flannel shirt is good to fight in, or sleep in, and is good for hot or cold weather.

The Chicago "Wigwag" has been re-baptized, and is now called "National Hall." It is consecrated to the patriotic citizens of Chicago, of all parties, who desire to meet there and consult together for the maintenance of the Union.

War Items.

Dr. Robert Sabin and Daniel Fish have been arrested in New York for treason.—The former for enlisting troops and the latter for forwarding arms and munitions for the southern confederacy.

Twenty-three southern cadets have left West Point in consequence of refusing to renew the oath of allegiance to the United States.

Major Patrick, of the U. S. A., has been appointed Adjutant General of New York. The Van Buren Press, the leading Union newspaper in western Arkansas, has hoisted the flag of the confederate states.

The United States troops at Fort Smith, Arkansas, have evacuated the post and left for the Indian country. State troops now occupy the fort.

There was a large Union peace meeting held in St. Louis on Tuesday night. Speeches were made by Messrs. Stuart and Price. Resolutions recently adopted at Louisville, were passed unanimously; also a resolution instructing delegates to the state convention to support and vote for the principles expressed in the same.

Indians can send to the field within one month fifty thousand men. The general assembly will place the state upon a war footing for the present, and establish a reserve guard of ten thousand men for home protection.

O. B. Young was arrested on Wednesday at the Spencer House, Cincinnati, by the United States marshal, on the charge of treason. Important correspondence was found in his possession. He will be examined by the United States court now in session.

F. P. Blair has been elected to the colonelcy of the first regiment of Missouri volunteers, and has accepted.

The Indiana legislature met in extra session, on the 24th. The officers are half-republican and half-democratic, notwithstanding both branches are republican.

The organization of the house, the ladies and gentlemen who had repaired thither, were requested to sing the Star Spangled Banner, the Red White and Blue and the Union Forever. The crowded assembly applauded the patriotic strains by every way possible with three times three, buzzes.

The people of Rockford have furnished their Zouave company with abundance of blankets. On one blanket was the following: "Trust in God," on another, "Trust in God, with all your might," and another, "Fight bravely for our country, and put your trust in God, who doeth all things well."

In Richmond, Va., the secession excitement was at a high pitch on Thursday. A party of secessionists manifested their joy at the passage of the ordinance by placing a negro astride of the statue of Washington.

The ship Lallah Rock, of Maine, lying in Hampton Roads, Va., has probably been seized as a privateer by the southern confederacy. A Norfolk pilot took her there and refused to take her to go to sea again.

A sailor has been arrested in Elizabeth, New Jersey, for attempting to get up a piratical expedition in favor of Jeff. Davis.

There are about 2500 men at the St. Louis arsenal, subject to the orders of the secretary of war.

The report that troops have been stationed at Cairo to obstruct river commerce, is denied on the authority of Gov. Yates, of Illinois. The troops were sent as a mere precautionary measure.

It is believed that Missouri will send the four regiments called for by the President, notwithstanding the refusal of the governor to comply with the requisition of the President. Enlistments progress rapidly.

Enthusiastic Meeting in Clinton.

A long report of an enthusiastic meeting in Clinton, held at Clinton Junction, Tuesday evening, was put in our hands at 10 o'clock to-day, when other copy was in the hands of our compositors, and too late for publication entire. Dr. Hunter was chosen chairman and L. M. Hammond secretary. Rev. E. B. Hatch opened the meeting with prayer.

C. G. Williams and H. A. Patterson of this city, Robert Carey of Clinton, Bennett Wooster and Mr. Cooper of Beloit (a volunteer) and several others addressed the meeting. About $2,000 was subscribed to a relief fund for the families of volunteers, and twelve volunteers offered their services.

The list of subscriptions furnished us, and the roll of volunteers is not full, and if our friends in Clinton will send us a full list of both we will gladly publish them.

The patriotic feeling and liberality in donations in several portions of the county equals or exceeds that in this city. Clinton and Turtle are prominent among the towns thus distinguished.

Mr. Wooster of Beloit said—"Boys, I am not an orator; I am a plowman; but when my country calls, the plow stands still on the furrow. The blood of '76 courses swiftly through my veins, and I am on my feet; my voice, by God's help, shall be raised in defense of my country; my means are at its command. I am now sixty-two years old, and if I had five hundred boys I'd say go, go, every one of you, go, and if there are not enough of you, then look out for Uncle Bennett; for he'll be with you soon."

When Mr. Wooster sat down, his son, Chas. D. Wooster, came forward and said his name should head the list to go and fight his country's battles.

PATRIOTIC MEETING IN ALBANY.—We have seldom attended a more patriotic meeting than the one held at Albany last Saturday. Delegates were there from Monroe and a large delegation from Brodhead attended, accompanied by our brass band, who contributed much to quicken the patriotic pulse with music on the way, and received, on arrival a cordial greeting from the Albany people.

Our friend Baker, of the Times, presided, and patriotic speeches were made by him and others. Capt. Warren presented to the meeting a band of young and noble spirits who had enrolled their names for the war—and they were enthusiastically cheered.—The pulse in Albany is true to the Union.—Brodhead Independent.

The volunteers are drilling daily.

Last Night's Report.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, OFFICIAL UNITED STATES DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, April 24.

Direct advices from Annapolis by letter and travelers to 4 o'clock P. M. yesterday, say the 7th New York and 8th Massachusetts regiments are there.

A large force of secessionists lay between Annapolis and Washington.

Communication is perfect to Annapolis. Government has seized all the vessels between there and Havre de Grace. The depot is occupied by three companies of Massachusetts troops.

Gov. Butler declared that as soon as the troops which left New York Sunday afternoon should arrive, he would march to Washington.

The 5th Maine Cavalry is manned by a company of Massachusetts troops, and can level Annapolis with her guns.

The board of supervisors have appropriated a quarter million of dollars to support the families of volunteers.

Judge Betts, of the U. S. circuit court, to-day charged the grand jury, defining the crime of treason and its consequences. It is stated that the hammers of the arms at Harper's Ferry were safely removed before the conflagration.

Fifty uniforms for the south were seized by the police at different tailor shops in Brooklyn, made by order of a New York firm.

The Persia is detained until morning, to take Lord Lyons' despatches. Among the passengers are Com. Aulick and the agents of Massachusetts, New York and Pennsylvania, to purchase arms for those states.

Provisions are becoming scarce at Washington. Government is supplying families with seized flour at $8 per barrel.

Military officers say there are over two thousand men lying at Alexandria, and not more than half were armed.

It is known by the government that Gen. Beauregard would be in Richmond next Tuesday.

The 7th New York regiment is known to be in Annapolis.

Baltimore had sent some troops to intercept their march between Annapolis and Washington junction. Scott will assist them if attacked, at all hazards.

The 6th Massachusetts regiment will find its way up the Potomac if they cannot return to Annapolis. Families that can get away, are leaving as fast as possible.

A portion of the ten thousand arms shipped from the Springfield arsenal have arrived here. The troops are now ready to march.

HAVRE DE GRACE, April 24.

A gentleman arrived here from Baltimore this forenoon who reports that Fort McHenry was certainly reinforced with six hundred men; also, that the Baltimoreans had planned cannon towards her. The commander ordered him removed, which was complied with. Subsequently another was pointed at her on another side, which was also removed.

It is stated that an agreement had been entered into between the authorities of Baltimore and the government for the rebuilding of the bridges at the expense of Baltimore, and the road would be in running order in ten days.

NEW YORK, April 24.

Mr. Simonton, the Washington correspondent of the Times, who left Washington yesterday, says a rumor having reached Virginia that Lieut. Gen. Scott was about to resign as general in chief of the U. S. army, Judge Robinson, an old personal friend and classmate of his, came to Washington on Sunday from Richmond, to offer him a commission as commander in chief of the forces of the Confederate States. After learning the purport of Judge Robinson's errand, Scott interrupted him with a declaration that if he went any further in making such propositions to him, he, Judge Robinson would not be allowed to get home, adding that having sworn to support the constitution of the United States, and recognized all the honorable obligations of that oath, he should, of course, observe them.

Mr. Simonton says he learns from good authority that the 7th regiment marched over from Annapolis to Washington on Monday night. Citizens of Maryland and Virginia are positive in their protestations that there is not the slightest sign on the part of those States to invade the federal capital, and are not advised of the purposes of Jeff. Davis and other disunionists.

Heavy work is reported to have been done at Richmond on Monday. "In furtherance of their plans, the secession authorities yesterday ordered Major Tilghman's command of militia of Eastern Shore, to take possession of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal. This doubtless looks to its destruction as a means of transit for troops. The Union men of Cecil county were endeavoring to effect measures to protect the canal."

The Times says from reliable authority the 7th regiment landed at Annapolis at the same time with the Massachusetts regiments. About twenty-five hundred persons were collected, partly armed and having howitzers, to oppose their landing. The regiment formed with the Mass. regiment and marched straight through the opposing force. They were not molested.

BOSTON, April 24.

The steamer Spaulding arrived at Fort Monroe Sunday morning. There were 800 regulars in the fort. The State of Maine arrived soon after with the 4th regiment. The troops were transferred to the Pawnee, which left Fort Monroe Sunday night. The troops were in good spirits, all day, and they were eager to go to a battle of duty. It is reported that there are 5,000 troops in and around Norfolk, and more arriving. Capt. Howe reports that the Virginians talk of storming Fort Monroe, as that is the only possible way of taking it. That, however, will be no easy matter. The government had notified the residents in the vicinity of the impending danger. All think the fort will be taken, but calculate on a great loss of life. The captain of the steamer Spaulding reports that there had been no reinforcement of Fort McHenry, the time of his leaving, on Sunday. There were about 1,000 regulars in Fort McHenry. The Virginians were erecting batteries at Stonell's Point, opposite Fort Monroe and overlooking the Hampton Roads. Capt. Howe reports the light house at Cape Henry not lighted.

PHILADELPHIA, April 24.

The messenger reached Annapolis Sunday and found the United States ship Constatin occupied by the secessionists, they being engaged in converting her into a battery. The secessionists were driven out of the ship and she was towed out into the stream by the Maryland, but after doing so grounded. Some of her guns were hoisted out and then she floated off with the Maryland, then again grounded, and was fast when our informant left.

A gentleman who left Annapolis yesterday has arrived here, he heard a report there that a negro insurrection had occurred in Anne-arundel county.

Gen. Butler, of Maine, offered the services of the 8th Massachusetts regiment to subdue the insurrection. Butler was taking measures to re-ly the rails on the Annapolis road. They had been carefully taken up by the railroad company. No difficulty was apprehended in again assuming the road to Washington.

NEW ORLEANS, April 23.

The governor has received information that 1,500 Tennesseeans are on their way to join the confederate army. The steamer Marquis de Habana, has been purchased by the confederacy, and will soon be fitted as a war steamer.

Cairo, April 23.

About 2,000 troops have arrived here; all is quiet. It is rumored that Tennessee is sending troops to attack this place, but not credited here. The feeling here is strong for the Union. There is no interference to business on the river.
